Dear Mr. Mason:

It was nice to hear from you and to know of your interest in the details of the North Carolina Colonial issues.

All of the 1778 issue with the words "THE RISING STATES" seem to have the date 1778 on the back and I thank you for advising me as to yours.

I am sorry that we do not sell any notes.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Dear Mr. Mason:

Your letter of October 2, 1964 is at hand.

You asked what notes I had seen earlier than 1748 and I wish to tell you that I have seen those of 1722, 1729, 1734 and 1735.

As to your information on the 1778 issue, apparently you cannot help me. I am familiar with all of the details on the 1780 issue but my original letter pointed out to you that some of the 1778 issue had the date 1780 on the back.

I have completed the cataloging of the North Carolina section of the book I am writing and my publisher would not favor my releasing the information at this time. I ordinarily cooperate with everyone who wants information, but I am hopeful you will excuse me for the present in not turning my data over to you. I think youwill be pleased with it when it is published as it goes into details far beyond what has been previously published.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Mason:

Thank you for the Tar Heel pamphlet. I had the earlier editions of it but not this one. Glad to add it to my library.

As to the 1754 N. C. issue, you have found something new to me. Please send Xerox copies of your 4d hog and 4d Monogram. They will go into the revision. I already have the addition of 8d Boar and 1s Bear to the 1754 issue.

I appreciate your cooperation and particularly your kind remarks about the book. More data keeps coming from many.

Let me hear from you.

Dear Mr. Mason:

Thank you for the Xerox copies. The 4d of 1754 was new to me and will be listed, hopefully, in the revision.

I have to check the 1754 Act for quantities of the different denominations. I then have to check the 1748 Act to see if they really made the 1/6, 2/6, 6/ and 7/6 as no examples are known. None of the 15s of 1748 are known but that is a normal situation. The other form is not normal.

If you can look this up easier than I can, I would be delighted.

I do not sell any pieces as I avoid being commercial. However, I will trade for anything I don't have. Do you have anything you want to part with, for, if so, I'll find something for you.

Did you get your North Carolina pieces from Fitzgerald?

Do you have any duplicates of the 1748 or 1754 issues, etc?

Thanks for your help.

Dear Mr. Mason:

Your nice letter is at hand and perhaps we will be able to trade a few items.

My North Carolina 30 shillings of 1760 is not in very nice condition and I wonder in what condition your duplicate is.

I would also appreciate knowing what pieces of Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia you have in duplicate. Perhaps you could list them.

I am sure that I would be able to find something for you in my duplicates but, unfortunately, I do not have the 1754 item you need nor any of the low denominations of 1775 except half of a bill of $3.

It was not clear to me as to whether you needed a $100 of 1778 and a $50 of 1779, or whether you wanted to know in what condition my pieces were.

Thomas Fitzgerald, about whom I wrote, found a few North Carolina notes in a scrapbook, in New England, and has sold them to various people. This was a special find and he made the most of it.

Do you collect the other colonies, or do you specialize only in North Carolina?

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Mason:

I am returning your 30 shillings North Carolina bill dated 1760 as mine is in unfortunate condition, also, and I hoped I could improve mine.

In your list of available pieces there are several in which I may have an interest and would appreciate it if you would forward them.

Georgia 1777 $13 has many border varieties and you probably have one which I might not have.

The Virginia January 14, 1780 $3-1/3, $6-2/3 and $13-1/3 would be of interest to me if they will improve my pieces and I believe a couple of them will.

In South Carolina, I would like you to send a March 6, 1776 17s 6d; the $20 December 23, 1776 piece, and if there are more than two signatures on the bill, send your $1, $4 and $8 December 23, 1776 pieces.

I enjoy collecting Colonial paper money by technical variety because it gives me a further opportunity of studying it.

You must have a lovely collection of North Carolina and I am sure that I would enjoy seeing it some day. I am satisfied that North Carolina pieces are as interesting as any other issues of the period.

My kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Mason:

Who is the artist who patched up and sketched in the design on the paper money you sent? He used old nineteenth century notes to fill in holes and a pencil to fill in dates, border designs, letters, etc. Then there was transparent tape added layer upon layer. I hope you realize that these pieces are all in very poor condition to start and virtually ruined by the tape to finish (except the $1 S. C.). I was very disappointed. It's not your fault, as they just took a beating during their early life.

Still, I'll try to find something you need in exchange. I know you know what state these notes were in and therefore you do not expect much.

You will hear from me.

Dear Mr. Mason:

I spent four full days at the New Orleans convention of the ANA. I met a lot of friends, did a lot of talking, and gave a lecture.

I found very little Colonial Currency of interest.

I am returning herewith to you the $13 Georgia bill, the $13-1/3 Virginia bill and the $1 South Carolina bill.

I soaked the South Carolina 17s 6d note in chemicals for about three weeks to remove the Scotch tape, etc. and it is now going to be sent to a friend of mine so that he can buy it from you, as I think he will.

As to the last item, being the $3-1/3 Virginia note, I removed all the patchwork, reinforcement, etc. and it is quite ragged. I am embarrassed to send it back to you and therefore am not doing so as it shows in what conditions these notes were before they were beautified. I am going to find something to send you in exchange for it but I have been so involved with business that I had to delay some of my extensive numismatic correspondence.

I did want you to hear from me, since you have been neglected, but I hope you realize that the condition of most of the notes you sent me was simply terrible and I spent a lot of time studying them to see what was really there and what was not there. Please be tolerant with this slow correspondent of yours.

I am sorry you did not get to New Orleans.

Sincerely yours,
